4. LifeTouch Photos - Phil Anderson

We discussed the staff's and family's experience with LifeTouch.

- There were questions about the timing of proofs coming out. They seemed to trickle in at various times instead of collectively.
- Some families received emails with digital codes and some did not.
- They looked really good
- They liked close up and far away poses
- The manner in which photos were taken was very efficient (2 photographers)
- The photographers were very flexible and accommodating

5. Provincial Lunch Program

We discussed areas of strength and areas of concern with regards to the Provincial Lunch Program.

- Many meals have been liked by students
- Lots of students increasing in their willingness to try different meals
- Some people are expressing concern about the portions
- Ordering is super easy-very user friendly

6. Student Success Plan

We reviewed action steps being taken for all of our SSP goals. These actions will be up for review and staff will determine the effectiveness of these actions.

During our reflection we will use student data to determine if action steps should remain consistent, be slightly changed or completely altered.

Language Arts

Creating a common understanding around Workshop Model and setting these up in classrooms
SLP in classrooms modeling UFLI instruction

ELST providing additional support where needed for Workshop Model

Ongoing walk through and follow-up conversations about workshop model

Math

Teachers will provide intentional and explicit instruction around math language that helps support students ability to articulate their mathematical thinking.

~~Teachers will provide instruction around place value to support student understanding of regrouping. Teachers will provide instruction that more directly connects place value to regrouping in operations.~~

Getting to know our students as mathematicians and gather ongoing evidence of student understanding in relation to computational fluency

Well-Being

Teachers will provide opportunity for students to share their life experiences

Teachers and school staff will provide learning opportunities about diverse and equity

7. Families Expressing Concerns Regarding School

We discussed how families can best express concerns regarding school. Their initial contact should be the classroom teacher. If conversation with the classroom teacher does not provide resolution they should then reach out to school administration. If this still does not provide resolution there are options: school family navigators, school supervisor, etc.

8. Provincial Code of Conduct

Discussed the purpose and content within the Provincial Code of Conduct. The Provincial Code of Conduct outlines what are considered unacceptable behaviors for students and defines these. It provides insight into how these behaviors should be addressed through education, restorative practices and consequences with particular consideration given to the individual(s) that have been harmed through these actions. This policy is specific to student conduct.
