4. Special Events

Fine Arts Specialist Circus Classes- Our November 6th Circus Workshop was well attended and enjoyed by students and families alike!

Caught Ya Assembly!- We had our first Caught Ya Assembly on October 26th. We recognized student achievements for both the months of September and October. Students were very very excited and supportive of their peers.

Remembrance Day Assembly- We had a beautiful Remembrance Day Assembly that was well attended by families and honored guests in the Canadian Armed Forces. A sub committee was involved in creating this event. A special acknowledgement goes out to Amanda, Deanne and Ashley C for their time and effort in organizing this event.

5. Student Success Plan

Coaching is well underway to support our SSP goals. In addition to coaching, Assessment Kits have been organized, spaces with additional resources have been cleared and these hidden resources have been distributed to classrooms to be used by students. Individual math kits have been created and distributed.

6. Professional Development (Nov. 23rd & December 4th)

Staff will be focusing on their SSP goals by focusing on Literacy instruction and Assessment and universal design for learning. They will look at workshop model, reading records, small group instruction and how to use universal design for learning to support student success.

7. Donations

We have received a donation from the Cow Bay Lions Club from the community breakfast that was held Saturday October 21st. We are incredibly grateful for the donations and fundraising being done on our behalf!
